Milford Library celebrates centennial birthday with performance

MILFORD—The Sweet Adelines of Champaign will sing Happy Birthday to the Milford Library when they perform in concert at 4 p.m. Feb. 16 at the Milford Grade School.

The group will present a program, "Meet Me at the Nunnery," about a group of nuns from Our Lady of Perpetual Responsibility convent who enlist the help of the Sweet Adelines to raise money.

"It is sure to be a fun-filled afternoon of harmonizing and laughter," said librarian Dean Hartman. "We are certainly looking forward to the afternoon. It is the library's way of celebrating the 100th anniversary of an established library in Milford."

Prior to the concert, the public is invited to participate with the Sweet Adelines in a workshop on harmonizing with the group. The workshop will be held at 1 p.m. at the grade school, Hartman said.

One member of the group is no stranger to Milford. Sue (Allen) Swartz, daughter of Elmer and Kay Allen, was raised in the community and attended local schools.

Cost to attend the performance is $8 per couple or $5 for individuals. Tickets are available from trustees or library staff, at the Blossom Basket and Simple Touches and will be available at the door.

Trustees include Harriett Mowrey, president; Vivian Rosenberger, vice president; Cathyleen

Rossville-Alvin High School plans third Cabaret Night

ROSSVILLE—Warm up those voices for Cabaret Night at the Rossville-Alvin High School.

The third annual program will begin at 7 p.m. Feb. 13 in the high school gym, showcasing the high school's show choir, concert choir, jazz band, concert band and various soloists and ensemblists.

Besides providing musical entertainment, students will sell flowers and candy for Valentine's Day Sweethearts. Song dedications will also be available.

Tickets for drawings will be sold, as will refreshments.

Cabaret Night is a means for the music department to raise money for equipment and the department's annual trip.
